URGENT! Need help (election 2008 - local level)

Hello everyone...ANYONE who could possibly help!

I'm an Atheist in the Rochester, MN area who is in a bit of a quandary over making clear conscience, proper choices concerning certain local races in my area. I'm quite surprised at how very little information is readily available when it comes to district court judges and school board seat candidates. If anyone could shed light on the candidates in any of the following race--of course, being a freethinker, I'm interested in their positions on religion (especially the school board candidates) as well as their world views--I would be greatly appreciative!

Thanks,
me
